YOUTH EMPOWERMENT PROGRAMMES

BOYS AND GIRLS ARE GIVEN EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES TO LEARN SKILLS TO BECOME PRODUCTIVE AND SELF-RELIANT

The GROW BIOINTENSIVE Agriculture Centre of Kenya (G-BIACK) was founded six years ago by Samuel and Peris Nderitu, husband and wife. Our aim is to offer empowerment programmes and build sustainable communities, especially targeting the less privileged families. There is an urgent need to incorporate the youth who now form almost 50% of the total population and who are vulnerable to the many social and economic problems that are occurring today. Thousands of youths (both boys and girls) are completing their studies only to become jobless. Many drop out of school due to factors like lack of school fees, early pregnancies, etc. A majority of them go to the cities and major towns to seek for jobs and they end up staying in slums. That is why Kenya has one of the biggest slums in Africa, Kibera, in Nairobi. As a result, the crime a rate has escalated, HIV/AIDS has sky rocketed and early and unwanted pregnancies have increased.

G-BIACK works to teach youths skills to enable them to stay in their communities by offering programmes that will empower them and allow them to create employment. These programmes are;

1. Sewing and tailoring programmes
2. Agriculture programmes
3. Computer programmes
4. Baking classes

Would you like to help a girl or boy to change their lives? You can be responsible for turning a lost life into a productive, self-reliant life. Please join us by donating to the programme through Network for Good at our website: www.g-biack.org.
